SPOTLIGHT ON EXCELLENCE: SKYLINE'S NOVEMBER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Meet Our Stars of the Month – Each month, Skyline recognizes students who go above and beyond, showcasing incredible work ethic, positivity, and dedication in their studies. Let's celebrate their achievements and acknowledge the unique contributions they bring to our school community!

Social Studies - Brandon Gurrola Gonzalez

Inspiring Work Ethic and Attitude

Brandon's work ethic and positive attitude in Government class is contagious!

P-TECH - Isha Shah

Exemplary Event Support

Isha provided amazing support during our 8th grade recruiting event.

World Languages - Yustyn Ramirez Renteria

A Positive Force in Class

Yustin has a positive attitude in class. He loves participating and helps other students. He works hard and completes all his assignments on time.

Math - Diego A. Duran Valderrama

Classroom Leader and Peer Mentor

Diego goes above and beyond re-explaining concepts to his classmates when they ask for help. He is always engaged in class and elevates each lesson.

Science - Angie Nieto

Curiosity and Persistence in Biology

Angie is an incredible example to her peers in Biology. Her curiosity, engagement, and persistence are leading her not only to a great grade but also to a promising future in science or any journey she chooses. Keep up the impressive work, Angie!

Art - Chloe Zamora

Award-Winning Dedication to Craft

Chloe's dedication to her craft and thoughtful processes has resulted in her winning an award at the Capstone Show at the United Church of Christ.

Business - Cyanette Chybowski

Quiet Leadership in DECA

Cyanette is a model student who actively participates in DECA, maintaining a quiet yet highly productive and successful presence in the classroom.

English / Language Arts - Lupita Ornelas-Menchaca

Curiosity and Dedication to Growth

Lupita demonstrates curiosity and dedication to learning that is unparalleled among her peers. Her writing has improved steadily throughout her time at Skyline, and she is now highly successful in conveying her ideas with the written word in AP English Language and Composition.

ELD - Ismael (Junior) Morales Dominguez

Challenging Limits with Determination

Junior, you are an incredibly hard worker. I love that you always want to challenge yourself, and you give all of your effort when it comes to your academics. Taking an AP class is a big challenge, and you are keeping up nicely. Keep up the good work!

Principal's Award - Luis Mendez Ojeda

Excellence in Academics and Leadership

Luis has excelled academically in their first semester, demonstrating strong self-advocacy, leadership among peers, and a personable demeanor that makes them a joy to work with.

Music and Drama - Andy Archer

Leading the Band with Dedication

Andy, the band's drum major, has done an awesome job leading the band due to his dedication and willingness to help others!

Family and Consumer Science - Brayden Callahan

Building Community Through Learning

Brayden is immensely responsible for his work in Nutrition and Wellness. He stays after class often to ask follow-up questions, check on his work, and (most excitingly) talks about our content with his family, leading to follow-up questions from his family as well! Way to involve your whole community, Brayden!

PE and Health - John Haley

Consistent Effort and Positivity

John comes with an amazing work ethic and positive attitude every time and gives 100%.

Late push prior to Finals: We have six more regular school days prior to the start of finals. Please push every kid to finish strong and pass your classes. We want them to be ready and to get across
